Net Game Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Celebration
Village Officials and Business Owners Celebrate New Location

Westmont, Illinois – The Westmont Chamber of Commerce and Tourism Bureau (WCCTB) and the Village of Westmont wish a warm welcome to Net Game located at 145 Plaza Drive, Westmont.

Members of the Westmont business community and elected officials gathered at 145 Plaza Drive, Westmont, for a Ribbon Cutting celebration on Thursday, May 9, 2024 at Noon.

“Net Game is the perfect indoor pickleball club in the Chicago suburbs with 9 true surface courts in a temperature-controlled space,” remarked Dorothy Foster, Owner, Net Game. “We are excited to open in Westmont and build on our local community’s love of the sport.”

Net Game offers open play, leagues, tournaments, social events, lessons, and drills for all ages. Guests can grab gear at the Net Game Pro Shop and enjoy food and drink at The Drop Shot. A variety of memberships are available at Net Game, from the seasoned competitor to the first timer player.

“With pickleball named the fastest growing sport in America, we wanted Net Game to be an inclusive place for people of all ages and skills to come and play,” said owner Jill Livingston. “Net Game is THE place to the play pickle!”

WCCTB President Becky Rheintgen, Oakwood Electric & Generator, remarked, “Celebrating and supporting our businesses is key to continued economic growth. We look forward to using this great pickleball facility for many years to come. We wish continued success to Dorothy Foster, Jill Livingston and her team.” Mayor Ron Gunter, remarked, “Congratulations to the Net Game team for bringing such a world-class and fun facility to our Westmont community. You have created a very welcoming environment with a knowledgeable staff.”
